

Aligning relative objects

You can use the Geometry palette to align objects, such as copies of artwork, in relation to each other. For example, you can align multiple copies so that the copies share an edge or their edges just touch.

Alternately, you can use the Snap to Artwork and/or the Step-and-Repeat function to align multiple artworks so that the artworks share a common edge or their edges just touch.