

When is a trim or crop box required?

The media box is the only box that is required in a PDF file. If no other boxes are specified, the media box is used as the trim size in the Pandora software.

If the crop box and trim box values are specified, the software uses the trim box.

If the artwork is not centered within the media box, the artwork should be centered within the trim box.